

- * Studying or working abroad and miss your favorite foods?
- * Need to send a care package?
- * Moved away and miss southern food?
- * Have a business need for food items not found in your area?

Lowe's Foods to Go is a great solution!

Order non-perishable grocery products from our physical grocery store, our personal shoppers will shop for you (shopping fee of $4.95) and ship the order (additional cost) to your US address or APO/FPO/DPO (Army Post Office/ Fleet Post Office/Diplomatic Post Office) address. We are unable to ship to international addresses.

It's easy to get started:

1. Click on the link at the bottom of this page or visit www.lowesfoodstogo.com , choose the State of NC, City, Winston-Salem and choose our Robinhood Road store.
2. Search, shop and place your grocery items in your shopping cart. Search for the word SHIPPING and it the item to your cart so we can add the average shipping charge of $25 to your order.

Shipping Information

We ship all orders via the US Postal Service. Shipping fees are determined once your order is packed and weighed for shipping. Your personal shopper will e-mail your final grocery order total and include shipping cost. Most orders ship within seven days. APO/FPO/DPO and Dulles orders require two-three weeks.

How Can I Cut My Shipping Costs?

We understand shipping can be costly especially when canned foods are ordered. If you have your own UPS or Fed-Ex account, we would be more than happy to charge your account. Just provide the information using the COMMENTS box during checkout.

Shipping Restrictions:

The Postal Service's definition of a hazardous material includes many common household and consumer products. These items may not be hazardous during normal use or storage in your home but can present a significant hazard when placed in the mail due to vibration, temperature changes, and variations in atmospheric pressure. Some examples of commonly-used items restricted or considered hazardous under USPS regulations include:

Perfumes	Nail Polish	Flea Collars
Aerosols	Bleach	Flea Spray
Matches	Batteries	Dry Ice
Mercury Thermometers	Glues	Cleaning Supplies
Matches

Other Restrictions:

- Amount of liquid per box - 16oz per box
- We are unable to ship products in glass jars.
- Other items, such as alcoholic beverages (beer, wine, liquor), are not considered hazardous but are prohibited.

Please Note:

- Fragile or brittle cookies may not make it in one piece
- High-moisture products, like banana bread and moist brownies, or products including cream cheese, could mold before arriving to their destination.
